COME EXERCISE YOUR IMAGINATION

It's one of my favourite knock, knock jokes.

Knock knock
Who's there?
Isabelle
Isabelle who?
Is a belle necessary on a bike!

I'd say yes - a bell is necessary on a bike - ringing out a cheery 'hello' or a 'watch out I'm behind you'. It's the bike's voice and so being a frocked up storyteller, a queen of pun and keen friend of the two wheeled stead - I am now pleased to share with you 'A Belle on a Bike' - a two wheeled storytelling house concert.

For the month of February I am available to be booked for story 'house calls'. Grab a few friends and or family (around 20-ish is a good number) and be prepared for a lively interactive session of stories and games.

The venue should be cycle friendly (please don't make me lug my bike up umpteen flights of stairs) and have an entrance way wide enough to fit a small gypsy caravan through (80cm).

The bicycle is just as good company as most husbands and, when it gets old and shabby, a woman can dispose of it and get a new one without shocking the entire community.

Ann Strong

I will arrive at your home on my glorious orange electric bicycle with gypsy caravan in tow (crafted by Don Stodart and painted by Helen Bacon) for an informative and amusing 45 minute story extravaganza which includes the history of cycling, famous belles on bikes, Bike-a-rela and the interactive 'Ring My Bell' cycling quiz. Yep get some fun between your legs this summer - get a bike!!
